

Conditions for linear regression

- A linear relationship between inputs and target
- Limited correlation between input variables
- Limited correlation between input rows (no autocorrelation)
- Constant variance of errors (no heteroscedasticity)
- Normally distributed errors
- Few outliers